Windſor, June 28. The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Cuſtos Rotulorum, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Juſtices of the Peace, of the County of Flint: Preſented to Her Majeſty by the moſt Honourable the Lord High Treaſurer, in the Abſence of the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Cholmondeley, Lord Lieutenant of North Wales.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

TO admit our Congratulation on the Glory of Your Reign, in the Union of Your Kingdoms; which has compleated the Happineſs we have by our Subjection to Your Family.

The Succeſs of Your Arms, the Conſervation of our Laws, and the Safety of our Church, were all we knew to pray for: But now we ſhall add to our daily Devotions, That God may give us Grace to repay to You in Duty what we receive by Your Protection.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Maldon was likewiſe preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and Commonalty, of Your ancient Borough of Maldon.

MADAM,

THE numerous Bleſſings which fill Your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, raiſe in the Hearts of us, Your dutiful and loyal Subjects, an equal Wonder and Complacency. Pardon then, Dread Sovereign, our repeated Approaches to Your Royal Preſence, who, being thus affected, take every Occaſion that may augment the Luſtre and Glory of Your Government, to caſt our ſelves in great Humility at Your Royal Feet, and teſtify our juſt Acknowledgment and Satisfaction.

It is the remarkable Advantage of Your happy Adminiſtration to give uncommon Inſtances to Your People, of a prudent Conduct and Management in Peace as well as War; and to have Your Councils produce Effects little leſs ſtupendious than Your Arms. The Union of Your Kingdoms of England and Scotland, ſo frequently attempted by Your Predeceſſors in vain, and ſo quickly and amicably effected by Your Princely Wiſdom, is an Event perhaps as unexpected and ſurpriſing, as the Victories of Blenheim and Ramillies.

May it pleaſe him by whom Kings Reign, who hath inſpired Your Royal Heart with great and noble Deſigns, and bleſſed them with the deſired Iſſue, to attend this great Undertaking with a Succeſs agreeable to Your Majeſty's pious Intentions and Deſires; that may effectually tend to the firm Security of the Proteſtant Religion, eſpecially of the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſhed, (the chief Bulwark and Support of the Proteſtant Intereſt) and to the laſting Weal and Happineſs of all Your loving Subjects, that they may mutually conjoin in a cloſer Union of Hearts and Affections; and Your Majeſty long enjoy theſe happy Fruits of Your tender Care for the Good and Welfare of Your People. Given under our Common-Seal, the 23*d of* June, in the Sixth Year of Your Majeſty's Reign.

The Addreſs of Cliderow, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Daniel Harvey and Edward Harvey Eſqs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Genoa, June 9. N. S. Dr. Newton, Envoy Extraordinary from the Queen of Great Britain, is on his Departure for Florence, having been treated during his ſtay here with particular Marks of Diſtinction. His firſt Audiences were attended with unuſual Honours; the Republick being willing to ſhew their great Reſpect to Her Majeſty in the Perſon of Her Miniſter. Having received his Credential Letters, and Notice thereof being given to the Senate, Signor Clemente Doria and Signor Paolo Gieronimo Palavicino, who had been formerly Envoys Extraordinary from the State to the Court of England, with Franceſco Torre and Gio Agoſtino Scaglia, being appointed Deputies by the Republick to attend the Envoy, firſt made him a Viſit at his Houſe, with a Compliment from the State; after which he was admitted to a private Audience of the Doge.

As ſoon as his publick Audience of the Doge and Senators was appointed, the Maſter of the Ceremonies came to the Envoy's Houſe about 11 in the Morning, to inform him that the Deputies of the State, with the Nobility, were below to attend him to the Palace: Whereupon the Envoy, being accompanied by the Conſuls of England, Holland, and Hamburgh, with the Merchants and Gentlemen of thoſe and other Nations in Her Majeſty's Alliance, went down, and found the Deputies at the Door; whence they proceeded in the following Manner: Firſt the Footmen of the Envoy in their Liveries, conducted by two of thoſe of the Republick: After them the Retinues of the Gentlemen who accompanied him, immediately preceding his own Domeſticks, attended by thoſe of the Duke of Moles, and the Marquis Molinari the Imperial Reſident. In the next place appeared the Conſuls, with the Gentlemen of the ſeveral Nations, followed by the Envoy
